

BEING A SHEEP BUT NOT SHEEPISH

Spring is the time of year when we gaze, perhaps wistfully, at fields full of ewes and their lambs. Sheep have the reputation of being some of the stupidest of animals in God's creation. We tend to think of sheep as passive creatures, indeed we criticise people for acting like sheep. In March this year an attempt to steal 'Dolly the Sheep' was foiled when campaigners realised they could not tell her apart from the rest of her flock. We might, therefore, find it striking that the youngest, smallest of lambs invariably finds its way back to its mother.

Jesus gives us a wonderful image in today's Gospel, when he says 'I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me.' The sheep that Jesus is talking about are far from passive. Just to survive, a sheep needs to be constantly aware, listening for the voice of the shepherd. And they can only do this successfully as part of a flock.

The message that we often hear today is that we need to be independent, able to stand on our own two feet, making our own way through the troubles of life. This message can only gain hold in a society where a significant number of people have financial independence, and where the dangers around them can be held at bay by increasingly expensive security arrangements. The reality of life for most of us is that we cannot survive on our own, we need the help and support of other people and we need the help of God.

When we follow Jesus, we are far from being passive and unthinking sheep; we are actively following His voice and opening our lives to the love of God and the love of our brothers and sisters in the Church. This is what gives us the courage to be bold in the midst of life's dangers, to live full lives, not constantly looking over our shoulders for the next threat. It is what enables us to be truly who we are. As we place our trust in Him we learn our true dignity as daughters and sons of God, the dignity that enables us to grow to maturity as children of God.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

1. "Filled with the Holy Spirit" Peter preaches to the rulers (1st reading). When have you felt 'filled with the Holy Spirit'? Why? When? What was your response?
2. We are called "God's children", and so we are (2nd reading). How do you live this out? How does the 'knowledge' of being a child of God affect your way of life, your outlook and your attitude?
3. "I know my own, and my own know me" (Gospel). How do you let Jesus 'know' who you are? What do you reveal to him?

TODAY: SUNDAY 22 APRIL 2018

RETIRING COLLECTION—Clergy Training Fund

'GOOD SHEPHERD' SUNDAY TODAY when we pray for vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Prayer cards in the porch. Please pray for our seminarians that they will continue to respond to God's call. Our Diocese currently has 13 students for the priesthood. They are studying in six different seminaries: St. John's Wonerish, Allen Hall in London, St. Mary's Oscott, the Venerable English College and the Beda College in Rome and the Royal English College in Valladolid.

A prayer to Our Lady for Vocations to the Priesthood:

*Hail Mary, full of grace, when the angel asked you to bear the Son of the Most High,
you responded generously: "Let it be done unto me."
Be with us now as we discern our life's work and guide us in the way we are called to follow your Son.
Holy Mother of the Good Shepherd, turn your motherly care to us.
Intercede for us to the Lord of the harvest that He may send us more labourers for the harvest.
Ask the Lord to bless our Diocese with more vocations to all states of life and ministry within the Church but especially to the sacred priesthood.
Thus may the word of your Son be made flesh anew in the lives of persons anxious to proclaim the good news of everlasting life. Amen.*
